Foreword

The period in which we live offers advantages for the well prepared. May we think of the twelve memorable years spent at Lillington High as the initial period in this preparation for the opportunities that lie before us.

With a determined effort, we may gain success and recognition in this society. By gaining these we are then able to contribute something worthwhile to our country. The poet has expressed it thus:

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time.

Dedication

To a man whose humor has brightened our days,
And one whose knowledge has lightened our days.

For being such a good friend to each and all,
And for always helping up those who fall.

Because of all the nice things that you do,
To you, Mr. Lee, we dedicate "Footprints of '62".

Now we can go steady too!

You've heard of Hedda, well this is Karen!

It's o.k. Bobby! Your fan club has left.

Whew! One down and 179 to go.

We have to make a book report tomorrow.

Now maybe we can face Advanced Math.

Who said being a Senior was all play?

We all envy Tommy's talent.

We were all paying attention!

We wanted our names in lights.

At recess we caught up on the news.

We seniors supported
our team.
